ADVERTISEMENTS

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

SUCCESSFULLY relating its activities to the life of mountain Carolina since its founding in 1893, Western Carolina Teachers College long ago established itself as an institution of notable influence and leadership. In greeting the members of the Class of 1933, therefore, and in extending to them our cordial good wishes for abundant success, we are privileged to remind that, in planning lives of service to their section and their state, they have only to look to their Alma Mater for an example altogether worthy.
